Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I really think that Microsoft is getting off waaay too easy. Big monopolies cannot be allowed to just bulldoze every other competitor, especially when their means of destroying everyone in their path has been shown to be.... well, "less than ethical" would be a polite way to put it. This settlement rewards greed, narrow-minded self interest, and unscrupulous behavior. We certainly don't need this in a world where "might makes right" is already too often the rule.

Sincerely, Heather Priest
